

Want to learn how to cook an authentic Caribbean dish or two?

Whether you're an Amirage client who is passionate about one of our dishes or new to our service, we're delighted to show you how to cook that special recipe (or recipes for that matter) properly - you won't find any tinned kidney beans in our Rice & Peas!

We want many more people to eat and love Caribbean food, so we're happy to share the knowledge.

Your cooking lesson will be conducted in your own kitchen at a time that's convenient for you.

We meet in advance of the cooking session, so that you can select the dish/dishes you want to learn to cook - the whole session is tailored to what you want to learn.

We bring all the ingredients and take you through your chosen recipe(s) step-by-step. You do the cooking, we do the teaching!

At the end of your half or full day session, you'll know about the ingredients, how to prepare and cook them; and of course how to present your dish/dishes.

The length and the price of the session varies according to what and how many dishes you select - once a price is quoted it's fixed!

Email Althea at enquiries@amiragecuisine.co.uk to discuss your requirements.
